What is Title III?

Title III is a grant to institutions authorized by the Higher Education Act of 1965 and subsequent Congressionally-approved authorizations. The U.S. Department of Education awarded UDC a Title III grant in 1999 which means that we have completed a five year grant cycle, and we are beginning another. You've heard of Title IX which focuses on parity in women's sports: you've also heard of Title IV which includes Pell Grant allocations to students. The Title III grants provide monies to developing institutions (with particular emphasis on HBCUs) to assist in the realization of each institution's Strategic Plan.
