

FACULTY SENATE & CHARTER AND BYLAWS COMMITTEE
APPROVED MOTION (01/13/2015)

WHEREAS, the Faculty Senate needs to have a robust structure for its deliberations; and

WHEREAS, there is some confusion about the current structures within the institution; and

WHEREAS, the Faculty Senate represents all interests of the university, especially of all academic disciplines/programs; and

WHEREAS, the current language in the Faculty Senate Bylaws is as follows:

“One full-time faculty representative from each academic department or division of the University of the District of Columbia, one faculty representative from the David A. Clarke School of Law, one faculty representative from the Learning Resources Division, and one full-time faculty representative from each of the academic units of the Community College of the District of Columbia, elected at-large by their peers.”

WHEREAS, the intent of the current resolution is to clarify the current language in the bylaws;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the senate authorize replacement of “each academic department or division” by “each current academic discipline/program¹”. The new language will be as follows:

One full-time faculty representative from each current academic discipline/program of the University of the District of Columbia, one faculty representative from the David A. Clarke School of Law, one faculty representative from the Learning Resources Division, and one full-time faculty representative from each of the academic units of the Community College of the District of Columbia, elected at-large by their peers.
